WASHINGTON -(NEA)- When the wife of an American diplomat is kissed on the hand by a high and maybe handsome official of a foreign country, it's not because she's

It's because her husband represents one of the two most power's ful nations in the world.

Disillusioning as this may be, it's how Harold B. Hoskins, Director of the State Department's Foreign Service Institute, likes to illustrate the important position o diplomat's wife holds today.

She's a gal who's in a position to play a vital part in the destiny of the nation. Sometimes her role is even more important than her

The question is, can she come up to this responsibility?

As head of the FSI, Harold Hoskins is one man who is determined to equip wives of U.S. officials abroad to better handle their share of foreign policy.
